Mr Miladin Milosevic
Director
Archives of Yugoslavia
Belgrade

London, 7 June 2012

Dear Mr Milosevic,

On behalf of LSE IDEAS, we wish to thank you for your generous contribution to the International Conference on the Nonaligned Movement in the Cold War, held in Belgrade, 24-26 May 2012.

Moreover, we wish to express our gratitude for your help with the organisation and proceedings of the Conference. All participants have praised it as one of the best organised in recent years. At the same time, they emphasized the Conference's very high academic level and are unanimous in their belief that the Conference will set new grounds in our understanding of the role of the Nonaligned Movement and the Third World in the Cold War, as well as to make an invaluable contribution to the scholarship of the global Cold War.

At the same time, all of us have been truly touched by your hospitality during our stay. Please also be so kind to convey our sincerest thanks to all your wonderful associates from the Archives of Yugoslavia. Their work and professionalism were truly impressive.

Once again, on behalf of LSE IDEAS and the participants, please accept our deepest and most sincere appreciation of everything you have done to make this Conference such a success.

Yours sincerely,

Professor Arne Westad
Co-Director, LSE IDEAS Centre
